

Leadership and Extracurricular Evidence

Tarik Ziya Aykut - supporting documents for voluntary student leadership, debate education, event organization, and cultural contribution.

#	Evidence	Purpose / relevance
1	Signed Vice Rector support letter	Official university-level confirmation of extracurricular leadership and student life contributions.
2	Arg.ist voluntary IT role confirmation	External founder confirmation of voluntary IT leadership, event support, and public debate education infrastructure.
3	Debate achievement summary	Objective summary of tournament participation, finals, championships, and adjudication roles from the debate records package.

Note: A previous student-society president confirmation was intentionally omitted. This package prioritizes stronger institutional and external evidence.

ACIBADEM UNIVERSITY
Statement of Support for Tarik Ziya Aykut

Date: June 1, 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this statement in support of Tarik Ziya Aykut's graduate study applications. Tarik has been an active and visible contributor to student life at Acibadem University, particularly through his work in debate, student leadership, public speaking, and cultural activities.

To the best of my knowledge, Tarik served as Team Captain of the Acibadem University Debate Society during the 2022-2023 academic year, and later served as President of the society during the 2023-2024 and 2025-2026 academic years. In these roles, he contributed not only as a competitor, but also as an organizer, mentor, and student leader.

As part of his debate society work, Tarik regularly supported free training sessions for university students, including sessions held on Tuesdays and Thursdays. These trainings covered a broad range of topics such as economics, international relations, argumentation, rebuttal techniques, social policy, and feminism. Through these activities, he helped students develop analytical thinking, structured argumentation, public speaking, and respectful discussion skills.

Tarik also represented Acibadem University in many debate tournaments across Turkey. He took part in competitive rounds, reached finals, and achieved championship results. In addition to competing, he contributed to the organization of several tournaments hosted by Acibadem University, taking responsibility for planning, coordination, and event execution. He also served as an adjudicator in high school debate tournaments attended by some of Turkey's leading high schools, thereby contributing to debate education beyond the university level.

One of his notable contributions was his involvement in the Oxford-Arg.ist debate tournament hosted at Acibadem University. Tarik supported the organization of the event and also served as an adjudicator, contributing to English-language debate and international academic engagement on campus.

Beyond debate, Tarik was also among the founding members of AcuHarmony Music Club. He contributed to the development of the club and performed in multiple university events, showing his willingness to take part in cultural life and collaborative student initiatives.

Overall, Tarik has demonstrated strong leadership, communication skills, responsibility, and commitment to university life. His extracurricular record shows that he is not only technically and academically motivated, but also capable of mentoring others, organizing complex events, representing his university, and contributing to a wider student community.

I believe these qualities will support his success in an international graduate environment, where communication, initiative, teamwork, and intellectual curiosity are highly valuable.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. İrfan Güney
Vice Rector
Acibadem University

Confirmation Statement - Arg.ist Voluntary IT Role

From: Tahsin Bilge Avci, Founder - Arg.ist

To Whom It May Concern,

Subject: Confirmation of Voluntary Role - Tarık Ziya Aykut at Arg.ist

I am writing as the Founder of Arg.ist, a civic debate education initiative dedicated to promoting critical thinking and structured argumentation across Turkey, to confirm Tarık Ziya Aykut's voluntary role within our organization.

Tarık has been a member of Arg.ist since January 2022 and has served as IT Director since the second half of 2024. In this capacity, he has taken responsibility for the organization's digital infrastructure, including website management, server administration, and internal IT coordination.

One of his notable contributions was serving as the IT lead for our joint Oxford-Arg.ist Debate Tournament, a collaborative event with Oxford University's debate community. He handled technical logistics for the event, including platform setup, coordination tools, and live event support.

He also manages and maintains munazarakonulari.com, Arg.ist's debate topic resource website, which serves as a reference platform for the Turkish debate community.

Tarık consistently brings both technical competence and a genuine passion for debate education to his work at Arg.ist. His contributions have been valuable to the organization's operations and growth.

I confirm the above information is accurate and I am available for any further verification.

Sincerely,

Tahsin Bilge Avci

Founder, Arg.ist
